

Charity Law and Administration

Introduction

Professionals and executives working for charities and not-for-profit organisations need to be aware of the legal context in which they operate. This course will provide the participants with an understanding of the legal environment in which their organisations function, its relevance in day-to-day operations, strategic planning, and policy formation, and equip them with the legal skills to apply the understanding.

Course Contents

- Sources of law
- Interpreting legislation
- Forms of charity organisations – their legal structures (including the Memorandum & Articles) and governance issues
- Other branches of the law:
  - Contract
  - The tort (civil wrong) of negligence
  - Cy-pres.

For Whom

Professionals and executives of charities, IPCs and VWOs who have limited knowledge in basic law.

Trainer

Mdm Lim Ting Yin is an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore and is Board member of New Life Community Services Centre, a not-for-profit voluntary welfare organization.

She began corporate legal practice at Colin Ng & Partners and has since worked as corporate counsel in various companies including MNCs and listed companies.

Ting Yin also has extensive experience and certification in training, having taught law at NUS, NTU, SIM University, Temasek Polytechnic & Ngee Ann Polytechnic. She was also part of the teaching faculty for the University of New South Wales, Asia and for the Law Society's Paralegal Certification Course.

Ting Yin co-authored "Singapore Company Secretary's Practice" and sub-edited "Company Law in Singapore".
