Speaker - Mr Khyron Goh

Khyron Goh is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of ACCA. At the same time, he also holds a diploma in Anti-money Laundering, and is a member of the International Compliance Association.

Khyron used to work as an auditor for Ernst & Young, before he was invited by the Managing Director of "The Financial Training Company" (now known as Kaplan Singapore), to join them officially as an accounting lecturer. During his time there, he taught the Certified Accounting Technician and ACCA programmes. Among the students he taught, he has produced a number of prize winners for being one of the top students on a global ranking. He strongly believes in motivating students to break boundaries in learning and to think out of the box, so as to achieve academic excellence.

With a strong passion for accountancy, Khyron never cease in his commitment to impart his knowledge. Currently, he is the leading lecturer for the UK Tax module for the Bachelor of Arts (Honors) Accounting programme, with the University of Bedfordshire.

In the corporate field, Khyron had been part of the senior management team in a Trust Company, where he headed three major areas of expertise: Accounting, Tax and Compliance. During his service there, he developed a holistic range of accounting and tax services, to cater to his clients' needs. Together with the team he headed, they prepared the financial statements for the clients in accordance to the FRS requirements. He also provides tax advice to high net worth clients with investments in Singapore held under corporate structures.

From the compliance perspective, he has held dual functions. He has formulated the Anti-Money Laundering and General Compliance policies for the Trust Business, as well as the procedures for internal control systems for the fiduciary function. He is well versed in both the MAS regulations on Trust application and cross-border compliance issue relating to Hong Kong and the BVI jurisdiction.
