On 7th December 2017, Singapore Exchange (SGX) proposed to recalibrate disclosure requirements under the Listing Rules for areas of concern to both the market and the exchange.

- 1. Secondary fund-raising;
2. Interested Person Transactions; and
3. Significant transactions and loans.

SGX is also seeking feedback on whether to retain quarterly reporting (QR). Concern about compliance costs has been repeatedly raised among market professionals.

In view of this, Chartered Secretaries Institute of Singapore (CSIS) is organising a forum to seek the feedback for company secretaries and directors of the public listed companies on the proposed enhancement rules to continuous disclosure and Quarterly Reporting Framework.
